Thoughts on the Scriptures

Be Still and Know by PJ Stringfellow

Psalm 46:10 Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!

Psalm 46 provides is a wonderful place for a weary soul to rest. A Psalm reminding us of the Lords strength and control in midst of life's stormy trials. Verse 1 affirms that 'God is our refuge and strength, A very present help in trouble.'

It is God in whom we should confide in when we face life's challenges. It is God who is the strength and help to overcome. How easy it is to think of ourselves as able to face the days challenges. We have no need for God in our career, our family, our social life. We are self-sufficient and able... or so we think. Is it any wonder then that our lives are a mess filled with fear and turmoil?

This is why we must be still and know that God is God. We need to take a break from our busy lives to reflect on the Lords goodness. 'Come, behold the works of the LORD' verse 8 tells us. Remember what God has done and His goodness to His people. Remember His faithfulness. Remember His strength. By remembering the Lords goodness, we will have no need to fear what is happening around us. In our limitations, we will bring everything to God who is indeed a refuge and strength and a help at all times. In so doing the Lord will be exalted in our lives.
