Thoughts on the Scripture

The Holy Spirit is in the Word

A.W. Tozer

[Taken from "Tozer on the Holy Spirit. A 366-day devotional" - December 21]

How sweet are thy words unto my taste! ... Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

Psalm 119:103-104

Let us seek to know Him in the Word. It is in the Word we will find the Holy Spirit. Don't read too many other things. Some of you will say, "Look who's talking!" Well, go ahead and say it, I don't mind; but I am reading fewer and fewer things as I get older, not because I'm losing interest in this great, big, old suffering world, but because I'm gaining interest in that other world above. So I say, don't try to know everything. You can't. Find Him in the Word, for the Holy Ghost wrote this book. He inspired it, and He will be revealed in its pages.

What is the word when we come to the Bible? It is meditate. We are to come to the Bible and meditate... Let's open our bible, spread it out on the chair, and meditate on it. It will open itself to us, and the Spirit of God will come and brood over it.

So be a Bible meditator. I challenge you: Try it for a month and see how it works. Put away questions and answers and filling in of blank lines... Take a Bible, open it, get on your knees and say, "Father, Here I am. Begin to teach me."

He will begin to teach you, and He will teach you about Himself and about Jesus and about God and about the Word and about life and death and heaven and hell, and about His own Presence.
