Question: "What did it mean that Christ is Lord?"

From: <https://www.focusonthefamily.com/parenting/christ-is-lord/>

Less than half of American adults believe Jesus Christ lived a sinless life while He was on earth, according to the Barna Group. Only two-thirds of those who claim to be "born again" strongly believe Jesus was sinless. More than ever, parents need to teach their children who Jesus is and what His life has to do with theirs.

Contrary to what many believe, Jesus was not an imperfect man who simply offered good moral teachings. He is Lord of the universe, and He wants to be Lord of our lives.

Our children may hear the phrase "Christ is Lord" on a regular basis. But do they understand the meaning of those words?

First, the word Christ means "messiah." Simply put, Jesus Christ is God in the flesh. He came in human form, lived a sinless life, and allowed himself to be sacrificed to save us from sin and death (John 1:14,29; John 3:16; Romans 6:23; 1 John 3:4-5).

Second, the word Lord means "ruler." Christianity teaches that we have been purchased at the high price of Christ's sacrifice. Our lives no longer belong to us, but to God. As the Bible explains, "You were bought at a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's" (1 Corinthians 6:20, NKJV). So we proclaim "Christ is Lord" to acknowledge that we willingly submit to Jesus as the rightful ruler of our lives.

The Scriptures describe Jesus Christ as Lord over everything: "For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be the glory forever!" (Romans 11:36). But we need to guide our children from mere verbal affirmation and head knowledge to a true heart
