Question: "How Can You Glorify Jesus Christ?"

Praising One of the chief things God desires for us to do is to glorify Jesus Christ. How can a mere mortal glorify Jesus? In what ways do we bring glory to Christ? What possible way can Christians, still being sinners, glorify His holy name?

Chief Purpose of Man

The Westminster Shorter Catechism tells us what man's chief purpose is for being created. We must understand that when the Bible speaks of "man" it means mankind in general and of course this includes women too. The first question in the Catechism is a very important question.

Question One: What is the chief end of man? This is asking what is the main purpose of mankind.

The answer is "to glorify God, and enjoy Him forever."

That is a little understood purpose for which God created mankind.

First Peter 4:11 clearly spells this out saying, "If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen." Peter knew Christ intimately and like few others. Peter is saying that "in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ." We glorify God in our words, in our service, and in Jesus Christ. Often times I am told about all of the great things that I have ever said, did or written.

When I hear this, I am soberly reminded that of myself I am nothing and would do no good thing without the Holy Spirit in me. As Isaiah wrote, "I am the LORD; that is my name! I will not give my glory to another or my praise to idols" (Isaiah 42:8). The last thing I deserve is any credit or to take any glory from God for what I do.
