Hebrews 12:2

Please join us on Sunday for the service

At Capital Bible Church, our statement of faith declares, and we believe and teach the following:

10. The bodily resurrection of the just and the unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved and the everlasting punishment of the lost.

From: <https://www.gotquestions.org/>

Hebrews 12:23 shows that "all" mankind, for whom Jesus died, will be divided into two groups Christ the firstfruits, followed by "they that are Christ's at his parousia" (Greek for presence). Christ the firstfruits refers to the Body of Christ, his Church. Jesus was the firstfruits from the dead. But the Body of Christ will be the firstfruits of the world for whom Jesus died. They are called the "firstborn" in Hebrews 12:23. These Christians are raised at Christ's return (1 Thess. 4:16, 17).

There are two resurrections: first the church and second the remainder of mankind. No wonder Paul spoke of the "resurrection of the just and the unjust" in Acts 24:15. And this is just what Jesus tells us in John 5:28, 29: Marvel not at this, for the hour is coming in the which all that are in their graves shall hear his voice and shall come forth; they that have done good to a resurrection of life and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of judgment (RSV).

The first resurrection takes place in various stages. Jesus Christ Himself (the "first fruits," 1 Corinthians 15:20), paved the way for the resurrection of all who believe in Him. There was a resurrection of the Jerusalem saints (Matthew 27:52-53) which should be included in our consideration of the first resurrection. Still to come are the resurrection of "the dead in Christ" at the Lord's return (1 Thessalonians 4:16) and the resurrection of the martyrs at the end of the Tribulation (Revelation 20:4).

Revelation 20:12-13 identifies those comprising the second resurrection as the wicked judged by God at the great white throne judgment prior to being cast into the lake of fire. The second resurrection, then, is the raising of all unbelievers; the second resurrection is connected to the second death. It corresponds with Jesus' teaching of the "resurrection of damnation" (John 5:29).

The eternal state of the Just and the unjust continues for ever and ever and ever.
