Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith

Hebrews 12:2

Please join us on Sunday for the service

At Capital Bible Church, we teach and preach the fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The question to be considered is:

What does it mean to be crucified with Christ (Galatians 2:20)?

From: <https://www.gotquestions.org/>

Several places in the Bible speak of being crucified with Christ or having died with Christ: for example, Colossians 2:20; 3:3; and 2 Timothy 2:11. An extended discussion on the subject is found in Romans 6:3-14. Since no believer was literally crucified with Christ, the phrase crucified with Christ is symbolic for a spiritual truth. Galatians 2:20 is a key passage: "I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me."

Paul says, "Through the law I died to the law so that I might live for God" (Galatians 2:19). While Paul was trying to please God by keeping the Law. It was only when he gave up trying to achieve righteousness on his own and accepted the righteousness of God by faith in Christ that he truly began living for God. Justification by faith actually makes it possible to live for God.

Being crucified with Christ means that we are no longer under the penalty of the Law. That penalty was paid by Christ on our behalf. When Christ was crucified, it was as if we were crucified with Him. Being crucified with Christ means that we are new creations. "If anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!" (2 Corinthians 5:17). The old life is dead and gone. We walk in newness of life (Romans 6:4). Being crucified with Christ means that we have a new love. The lusts of the flesh and the love of the things of this world have been crucified (Galatians 5:24). Now we love Christ, though we have not seen Him (1 Peter 1:8). Being crucified with Christ means that we have a new commitment. We are dedicated to the service and glory of the Lord, and that dedication destroys selfishness and surpasses ties to family and friends. Being crucified with Christ means that we have a new way of life. At one time we "followed the ways of this world and of the ruler of the kingdom of the air, the spirit who is now at work in those who are disobedient" (Ephesians 2:2). But that way of life was nailed to the cross. Now we follow Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, and we seek to please Him in every way (Hebrews 12:2). In short, Galatians 2:20 tells us how we escaped the penalty of sin to live a life that pleases God. A life that can say "no" to sin and "yes" to God.
