Hebrews 12:2

Please join us on Sunday for the service

A question that has arisen in the church is:

Is there to be a future temple in Jerusalem and why is it important?

From: <https://www.growingchristians.org/devotions/two-future-temples>

Jesus referred to the Tribulation Temple in His Olivet Discourse: "When you see the 'abomination of desolation' which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place... then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains" (Matthew 24:15-16).

Chapters 40-48 of Ezekiel's prophecy contain an amazingly detailed vision of a glorious future millennial Temple. Ezekiel was given the precise dimensions of the construction (chapters 40-42). He foresaw the glory of the Lord returning to this Temple (chapter 43). He was given details of the function of the priests and Levites and the order of worship (chapters 43-46), and he was shown the layout for the whole area surrounding the future Temple complex (chapter 45). Chapters 47-48 give the future topographical changes in the region, and the political reorganization with the 12 tribes of Israel.

Zechariah's prophecy (Zechariah 67:9-15) was not fulfilled at the first coming of Christ, because the King and His kingdom were rejected. That generation didn't obey the Lord. But at the second coming of Christ, a remnant of godly Jews will come from far places and welcome the return of their Messiah. This remnant of the Jewish people is the "all Israel" mentioned in Romans 11:26: "And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written, 'The deliverer will come from Zion, and turn godlessness away from Jacob...'. These Jewish believers will participate with Gentile believers in the building of the Millennium Temple (v15).

Israel will finally be a light to the nations in the future, as God had originally intended. There will be no Temple in the eternal state because the effects of sin will be forever erased (Revelation 21:22 22:3). But during the Millennium, believers, both Jew and Gentile, will maintain fellowship with the Lord by coming to Jerusalem to worship Him. (See Zechariah 14:16-21.) In that wonderful day, the entire world will appreciate the holiness and grace of the Lord, through the function of this future Temple in restored Israel under the New Covenant.
